

MRS. HORTON DESCRIBES WAITE'S CHARACTER

GIVES FIRST INKLING OF THEORY ON WHICH DEFENSE WILL PROCEED

Mrs. Horton Follows Wife of Prisoner on Stand—Casts Sorrowing Glances at Waite—Appears to Care Little for Ordeal to Which She Was Subjected.

New York, May 24.—Mrs. Margaret Weaver Horton, the young woman with whom Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, confessed poisoner of his wife's parents, studied languages and music and shared a "studio" in a fashionable New York hotel, described late today at Waite's trial for murder what she considered the dual character of the prisoner. This allegedekyll-Hyde nature of Waite, the evil side of which he has asserted manifested itself in the form of a "little man from Egypt," gave the first inkling of theory upon which Waite's lawyers will proceed in their efforts to prove he was insane at the time he killed John E. Peck, and thereby save him from the electric chair. Mr. Horton who cast sorrowing glances at Waite as he sat pale and outwardly ill at ease not more than 20 feet from her, followed Mrs. Clara Louise Peck Waite, wife of the prisoner on the stand.

Mrs. Horton told her story slowly, directly, and gave the impression that she cared little for the ordeal to which she herself was subjected. It appeared to those who watched her closely that she was trying to convey to the prisoner something of the sympathy she felt for him.

Altho called as a witness for the state, Mr. Horton seemed to be much relieved when Walter U. Duell, counsel for Waite, began to cross-examine her.

Mrs. Horton, first told of how she met Waite last January when she was singing in a New York theatre. He was gentlemanly and kind to her, and they struck up a fast friendship. Waite was interested in her voice, and later inquired the name of her vocal instructor.

"He said he would like to take vocal lessons himself," she added, "and I introduced him to my teacher."

Mrs. Horton then told how she and Waite had studied modern languages and music together, for which Waite "insisted" on paying; and finally of the rental of the "studio."

Assistant District Attorney George H. Brotherton did not appear to be concerned about Mrs. Horton's explanation as to her relations with Waite, further than to establish the fact that they studied together and engaged the "studio" under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Walters.

On cross-examination Mr. Duell asked Mrs. Horton:

"Your relations with the defendant were purely platonic, were they not?"

"They were," answered the witness.

"When did you go to the apartment with the defendant?"

"Usually between four and five o'clock in the afternoon."

"What was his demeanor?"

"He was always gentlemanly and kind."

"Did he ever appear to be melancholy?"

"Yes, when I played or sang."

"Describe his actions."

"Why, he would cry like a child."

"At other times how did he act?"

"Very foolish. He was always bright and cheerful."

"Did he ever comment to you on his feeling with respect to his actions when you were playing the piano or singing?"

"Yes, he often said we were only children."

"Did the defendant ever ask you to go away with him?"

"No—never."

"While your clients do not represent a majority of the bondholders," the judge said, "their request furnishes a serious problem."

More than sixty members of the Alumni Association of the Illinois School for the Blind assembled here Wednesday for the first day's sessions of the biennial convention. The association was organized in 1887 but representatives of classes from 1882 onward are present.

At the business session Wednesday morning report was made by the employment bureau conducted under auspices of the association. Permanent and temporary positions have been secured for blind persons over the state and statistics have been collected for the future. The work has been conducted by Miss Ethel Kimball, F. G. Meyers and L. W. Rodenburg, but it was decided to enlarge this committee to five, making possible a resident Chicago representative. The question of the alumni trust fund came up for discussion also and gratifying report was made as to recent growth.

In the afternoon Superintendent and Mrs. H. C. Montgomery gave a reception to the visitors in the school parlors and this was followed by an informal dance in the gymnasium. During the early evening hours a musical program was rendered by the members of the I. S. B. faculty and by visiting alumni, and at 9 o'clock the visitors were entertained at a hay ride party in vehicles provided by the Novel Music Embossing Co. of this city.

The alumni sessions will continue through the day. In the forenoon there will be a continuation of the business session and various social activities will take up the afternoon hours. Tonight the regular biennial banquet will be held. Following is the musical program of Wednesday evening:

CORONER HELD INQUEST FOR MRS. ELIZABETH SARGENT

Verdict Was That Death Resulted From Stoppage of Heart Action Caused by Blood Clot.

Owing to the circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Sargent which occurred Tuesday afternoon Coroner Wright empaneled a jury and held an inquest Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. At the time of Mrs. Sargent's death several physicians were called in and several physicians were telephoned for. Dr. Canatsey was the first to arrive and Mrs. Sargent was dead before his arrival. Under the circumstances the physician did not feel justified in issuing a death certificate.

The jury empaneled consisted of John R. Hill, foreman, William McCurley, O. H. Weider, L. B. Haynes, A. J. Taylor and John W. Priest clerk. After hearing the evidence of Dr. J. W. Hairgrove, Mrs. Elizabeth Farrington, Mrs. Fred Seegar, Mrs. Catherine Sargent and Logan B. Sargent the jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury sworn to inquire of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Sargent, on oath find that she came to her death from a stoppage of the heart action by a blood clot, this condition following an attack of pneumonia."

CONTINUE TWO PROBES INTO WIRE TAPPING

NEW YORK MAYOR TAKES WITNESS STAND BEFORE COMMITTEE

Reads Into Records Conversations Alleged to Have Been Heard Over Tapped Wires During Investigation of Charitable Institutions.

New York, May 24.—Two separate investigations were continued today into the wire tapping operations of the New York police. One was by the legislative committee headed by Senator George F. Thompson and the other by District Attorney Edward Swann. The committee permitted Mayor Mitchell to take the witness stand and read into its records conversations alleged to have been heard over tapped wires during the investigation of charitable institutions after warning him that it considered the conversations irrelevant and informing him that he must assume all responsibility for any libel charges which might result from them.

The district attorney conducted a "John Doe" inquiry into the tapping of the telephone line of the law firm of Seymour & Seymour. One of the witnesses who appeared before him was Bartlett Smith, an electrician, who testified that he had installed a telephonic device in the lawyers' office at the instigation of W. J. Burns Detective Agency. He testified also, that he saw William J. Burns personally open a desk in Seymour & Seymour's offices, take papers from it and read them and have a stenographer make shorthand memoranda from them. Smith told Mr. Swann that his father had sold a telephone "tap" to Burns.

In his testimony before the Thompson committee Mayor Mitchell reiterated his charge that the telephone wires of Catholic clergymen and others had been tapped because of the discovery that there was a conspiracy to discredit the city administration and more particularly the department of charities headed by John Kingstony, who was indicted yesterday for his part in the wire tapping activities.

In declining to accept for his committee any report by the mayor's appearance before it Senator Thompson declared "the conversations over the telephone were taken by persons who could not know the voices or recognize them, or identify any person talking over the wire. In fact they were absolutely unable to identify them."

The mayor was attended by a small squad of detectives and his appearance in the committee room was the signal for considerable disorder. Counsel for Rev. William B. Farrell, one of the clergymen involved by the mayor in his allegations of a conspiracy, protested formally against permission to have the conversations read into the record.

Several spectators jibed at the mayor and the committee chairman resorted to a threat to clear the room in his efforts to restore order. The substance of the conversations revealed by the mayor related chiefly, apparently, to away and means to keep witnesses and evidence away from the charities investigating committee.

They told of efforts to dodge process servers and in two or more instances appeared to refer to the supplying of funds which would enable certain persons to take trips to Atlantic City. The names most frequently mentioned by Mayor Mitchell were those of Monsigues J. J. Dunne, Chancellor of the arch diocese of New York, Father Farrell, Robert W. Hebbard, former Secretary of the board of charities and Daniel C. Potter, a former employee of the city.

Father Farrell announced tonight that he intended to institute a civil action against Mayor Mitchell charging defamation of character.

The controversy over the tapping of wires in connection with the charities investigation and the resulting grand jury investigation which ended in the indictment of Mr. Kingstony and William H. Hotchkiss, his special counsel preceded the inquiry into the tapping of the wire of Seymour & Seymour which Mayor Mitchell attempted to justify on the ground that it had disclosed "an international plot involving the United States."

MAKE NO PROGRESS IN SELECTION OF A JURY TO TRY WILL H. ORPET

WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 24.—No progress in the selection of jury to try Will H. Orpet, University of Wisconsin student, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, a former sweetheart, has been made since Monday, there still being but four men sworn in and one tentatively accepted by both sides. J. J. Irland, a paint and wallpaper man of Highland Park was passed late today. A number of veniremen tendered by both the defense and the state were lost on challenge. L. J. Hieronymous and George F. Dolph who had been tentatively accepted by both sides were challenged today on the literacy test by the defense.

Judge Charles H. Donnelly instructed three of the four jurors who have been sworn not to smoke because the fourth, G. A. Thompson, a follower of the late Alexander Dowie, said he had religious scruples against smoking. The court told the newspaper men that the next one who wrote a fictitious story on the trial would be fined or imprisoned for contempt.

COLUMBUS, N. M., May 24.—A truck train was prepared here tonight to leave for the south carrying men to disinter the bodies of American soldiers killed in clashes with the Mexican bandits and bring them back to American soil. While no accurate list of the American troopers buried in Mexico was available here, military authorities believe that total would not exceed ten.

A lengthy message in code was transmitted from Major General Frederick Funston to General J. J. Pershing, expeditionary commander today. While military authorities have declined to discuss the dispatch it was believed it contained instructions to General Pershing as to the disposition of his troops in certain eventualities.

REPORT FUNSTON'S REQUEST FOR MORE COAST ARTILLERY IS REFUSED

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 24.—General Funston's request for more coast artillery is understood here has been refused by the war department. The additional units of the regular army and the militia of three border states has enabled him to strengthen materially the patrols along the long border but even with that added force there remain many weak points, it is said and it was to protect them that he asked for more companies of coast artillery. General Funston refused to confirm the report, but it was indicated at his headquarters that he had replied to the departments refusal by a request that more militia be sent to him.

The militia now in camp here will start moving towards the border tomorrow. Reports from General Pershing today indicated no sharp developments.

GOODRICH BRINGS FAIRBANKS' PRESIDENTIAL BOOM TO CHICAGO

Headquarters Will be Opened Today or Tomorrow and an Active Pre-convention Campaign Launched.

Chicago, May 24.—Charles W. Fairbanks' presidential boom was brought to Chicago today by James P. Goodrich, national committeeman and Republican nominee for governor of Indiana. Headquarters will be opened either tomorrow or Friday and an active pre-convention campaign launched for the Indiana "favorite son" candidate.

Mr. Goodrich will be aided in the management of the Fairbanks' campaign by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican state committee of Indiana, Edward C. Toner, former Progressive state chairman and Horace C. Stillwell.

Mr. Goodrich issued a statement in which he said:

"Mr. Fairbanks' public record is sound on Americanism and preparedness and every other live issue. He stands for an adequate preparedness for national defense, the restoration of the protective tariff, the organization to market our wares in the commercial centers of the world. His nomination for president would insure the election of two Republican United States senators from Indiana in November."

James W. Harris, national committeeman from Oklahoma was another arrival.

"Colonel Roosevelt has many friends in our state and their is some sentiment for Hughes," said Mr. Harris. "We want a man who can re-unite our party. One that can win."

PLAN PROVIDES MORE SYSTEMATIC SUPERVISION OF HOME MISSIONS

Now that the conference has decided to retain all the church magazines the elections of editors of the publications probably will be begun tomorrow. Meeting of the delegates from the supervisory areas were held today for the purpose of recommending candidates. The conference decided by a vote of 468 to 325 that it would be inadvisable to discontinue any of the periodicals of which there are a dozen or more.

LASALLE, Ill., May 24.—Two triple ties marked the third day's program of the fortieth annual meeting of the Illinois Trapshooters. The first event on the list was a 150 register target contest and Max Arlie of Thomasboro, who has proven his star of the meeting; Burmeister of Chicago, and Graper of Custer Park each broke 148. The money was divided between the three.

The L. C. Smith cup was the closing event of the program and again Arlie was on top with C. J. Patt of LaSalle and Connors of Chicago in breaking the fifty targets thrown from the traps. In the shootoff an additional fifty targets, Connors won with 49. Patt was second with 48 and Arlie third with 46. Four events are on the card tomorrow, the closing day of the shoot.

START CAMPAIGN TO PREVENT OPENING OF HAWTHORNE TRACK

CHICAGO, May 24.—A campaign to prevent the opening of the old Hawthorne race track for a running meeting in July was started today by the Citizens' association. A protest against the project of the Illinois Jockey club was filed by the association with the sheriff and the state's attorney.

State's Attorney Hoyne replied that he would prosecute any violation of the law but would not act as a policeman or sheriff to get evidence. The attitude put the matter up to the sheriff, who has not replied to the protest of the association.

Running races have not been held in Cook county for a decade because of a law against betting.

HOUSE DEBATES CALIFORNIA- OREGON LAND GRANT BILL

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The California-Oregon land grant bill, designed to restore to the federal government about $300,000,000 worth of land deeded to the Oregon and California railroad more than fifty years ago was debated in the house today and will reach a final vote tomorrow.

There was pending tonight an amendment by Representative Foster of Illinois, to reduce from 30 to 20 percent, the amount to be awarded the counties in which land lies, from the proceeds from the sale of the restored land after the railroad company is paid $2.50 an acre at which price by the original agreement it was to be disposed of to settlers.

GERMANS AGAIN TAKE DOUAUMONT

FRENCH STILL RETAIN IMMEDIATE APPROACH TO FORT

Austrians Continue Their Violent Offensive Against the Italians—Sir Edward Grey Tells House of Commons Time Is Not Yet Ripe for Peace.

Under a rain of shot and shell, which inflicted enormous losses, the Germans have again taken Douaumont, northeast of verdun, from the French. As tho to even the score somewhat, however, the French in spirited counter attacks northwest of Verdun recaptured from the German trenches on the southern outskirts of the village of Cumieres, which the Germans had occupied in the late fighting and also stopped with their artillery several attempts of the Germans to debauch from the village. The fighting around Fort Douaumont was furious, the Germans launching attack after attack against the fort, employing among others, two fresh divisions of Bavarians.

Several times the attacks were put down with heavy losses, but finally the Germans succeeded in re-occupying the point of vantage which they had held virtually since the commencement of the Verdun offensive until the French drove them out several days ago. The French still retain the immediate approach to the fort.

On the Austro-Italian front the Austrians from the Lake Garda region to the Val Sugana district are keeping up their violent offensive against the Italians. Driven across their border southeast of Trent, the Italians are endeavoring to hold a fortified line from Asiago to Arsiero and the heights east of the Val D'Assa. Rome admits that in effecting their retreat across the border the Italians destroyed artillery which it was impossible to withdraw.

As an outgrowth of recent talk of peace, Sir Edward Grey has reiterated in the house of commons that the time is not yet ripe for peace. It was the duty of diplomacy to maintain the solidarity of the entente allies, he said, until a stage of the war had been reached where the prospect of maintaining an enduring peace would be with the allies.

The American note to Great Britain and France reiterating, the more strongly, than in the previous note, the government's protests against the seizure and detention of legitimate mail matter bound to and from the United States has been handed to the British and French ambassadors at Washington.

Senator Newlands made a plea for the plan proposed by a cabinet committee for a national waterways commission to study and report on a comprehensive scheme of flood prevention, drainage, navigation and irrigation.

Who Would Succeed Hughes?

There is one possible cause for Justice Hughes' silence about the presidential nomination which is seldom mentioned but it is important, nevertheless. The justice realizes full well that if he becomes the nominee of his party and resigns from the supreme bench that a vacancy will be thus created which it will be the duty of President Wilson to fill. The politics is not supposed to enter into supreme court affairs, it is nevertheless a patent fact that President Wilson has not forgotten politics in his appointments nearly to the extent that would have been true had he followed the example set by President Taft in the instance of Justice White and other appointments.

Honor W. J. Rutledge.

At the state encampment of the G. A. R. one of the speakers paid tribute to the late Rev. William J. Rutledge, formerly of this city, who was one of the founders of the Grand Army of the Republic. Rev. Mr. Rutledge was both an ardent preacher and patriot. When the Civil war broke out he enlisted in his country's service and was appointed chaplain of the famous 14th Illinois regiment of volunteers and served for three years. No more loyal soldier went thru the great conflict and his part in the organization of the G. A. R. was notable. William Rutledge was one of many heroes that Morgan county gave to the war and the state encampment is but giving him due praise when each year his deeds and works are recalled.

If Roosevelt should happen to be nominated by the Republicans with Wilson the certain nominee of the Democrats, what would become of the German-American vote since Wilson's course has not been satisfactory to them and the Roosevelt program of preparedness is entirely too strong for their approval. Possibly it is with this very thought in view that the talk has been started of William J. Bryan as national candidate of the prohibition party. It would be a strange spectacle indeed, for German-Americans to be strong in their support of a prohibition candidate, but just as strange alliances have been continually recorded in American politics.

Interpreting U. S. Spirit.

If the people of Argentina will only read some of the 10,000 books which the Carnegie endowment for international peace has recently shipped to the Museo Social Argentina of Buenos Ayres, there will come a better understanding of conditions in the United States and what this country stands for. The gift is designed to "serve as a symbol of good will and as a permanent interpretation of the thought, feeling and activities of the people of the United States in the capital of their great sister republic of Argentina." But the books will accomplish a still larger mission when once they get into general circulation, and the whole tendency of events since the European war began has been to get the people of the United States and the South American countries into a closer relationship than has ever been true in the past. This is one of the few good things which the war has accomplished.

Tax Troubles.

The presence of a federal revenue officer to check up income tax reports of local residents has made the question of taxation a current topic of conversation. "Why," argue some of those who are subject to the income tax, "should a man who happens to be able to rustle around and by special ability or labor earn $3,000 a year, pay a tax on that sum, when his neighbor, with less effort, makes $2,000 a year, and escapes?"

The answer is very much the same as in the case of a property holder, who takes good care of his property and if watchful of the fences and general repairs. His taxes are higher than those of the man who owns a similar piece of property and lets it get into a run down condition just from lack of attention and industry. The resulting arguments from instances like these have revealed the fact that there is an increasing number of persons locally who favor Henry George's idea of the single tax and that on property.

The Rich and Their Horses.

Automobiles have become so common that now it is said to be a mark of distinction at many fashionable summer resorts to have a team and carriage instead of a car. This is the case, too, in New York and Chicago, where horses are in fashion again and the old distinction which was found in the carriage and pair has come back. This, however, does not interfere with the sale of limousines and high priced cars, for the rich will use their horses for city and park use and press the automobile into service for long journeys. This year, by the way, promises to be the greatest the automobile manufacturers have ever had. Everybody is employed who really wants work and money generally is so plentiful that the purchase records of all previous years are to be distanced.

Paper, War and High Prices.

A report from Germany declares that 3,000 periodicals have gone out of business since the war began, 1,255 of the number having suspended during four months of 1916. If the price of print paper continues to ascend in this country there will be just about that number of periodicals suspend in the United States. Already a number of the smaller papers have stopped publication because the price of news print has increased more than fifty per cent in the past ninety days. Some of the larger papers are sending notices to their correspondents to cut down the amount of matter sent, as it is the purpose of the paper managers to summarize their news matter and thus economize on space.

Paper manufacturers credit price increase to the war, but the consumers hold the opinion that somebody is cornering the market. Meanwhile the government has started an investigation, but probably nothing will be found until after prices are again nearly normal and then it will be too late to mete out punishment.

SCHOOL BOARD TALK

Altho the matter has been discussed in the papers, there are frequent inquiries about the term of service to which president and members of the board of education will be elected next Saturday. The law provides that the president of the board shall serve for one year. In the coming election the president will, therefore, be elected for one year only, and the members chosen subsequent to the election will draw lots as to the term of service. Three will serve for one year, three for two years and three for three years. Next year an election will be held to choose a president for one year and three members for three years, and this will be the rule at each succeeding election, so that in the annual school elections which are held in April the task of the voters will be to choose three members and a president.

When the new board of education is chosen one of the problems which will be presented to them will be whether they will cut down school expenses by having lower salaries, fewer in the faculty or less subjects taught in the schools, or will determine instead to increase the revenue possible for school purposes. The law provides that boards of education may levy one and one-half per cent for general school purposes and one and one-half per cent for building purposes, and also provides that if the people so decide at an election, these figures may be so changed that two per cent is levied for general school purposes and one per cent for building purposes. If the Jacksonville board of education should decide that it is the best thing for the school to secure additional revenue, then they can put the matter up to the people for a vote.

It is the general condition in high schools the country over that expenses have very materially increased during recent years. While there has been some increase in expenses in the lower grades, it is not nearly so noticeable as in the high school, where greater and greater demands are made by the public in the courses offered and the apparatus used. Possibly it is not just correct to say that these advances are made because the people demand them, but rather the trend of education is that way, and schools which take the advance step of increased instruction and courses become the example for schools in other communities.

Thus the high school is each year becoming more and more what it has popularly been termed for a long period—the people's college. And it is also true that no public institution has so much of general interest centered in it as the high school, and no other public institution has such liberality shown it. Many people who complain about taxes and the high cost of living generally make an exception with reference to school systems and are ready to pay the price for "new-fangled" ideas in educational work.

MISS HARMEL'S RECITAL

Miss Alma Harmel who is both to graduate and to receive her diploma in expression from the Illinois Woman's College this June, having studied four years in the expression department of which Miss Gleckler is the present head, gave a recital at Music Hall on Monday afternoon of this week. Her reading was her own cutting from "The Tale of Two Cities," and deserves much praise itself, for she reduced a long novel to a reading of an hour and a half. It included all that was interesting about the principal characters and most dramatic in the plot. Incidentally it represented hours of work.

Miss Harmel's presentation was excellent. She had much dignity and poise of manner and a very good voice, capable of expressing a wide range of emotion. One found oneself witnessing a play rather than listening to a reading. During the last ten minutes the audience sat tense while Carton changed places with Barney and Lucy, and with her family made her desperate escape from France. The final scene in which Sydney Carton sustains the little

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

CHANGE OF HEART

My teacher, when I went to school, would lean me with a pole, when I defied his tyrant rule, which jarred and chafed my soul. I'd mutter, when he left on me full many a whale and bruise, "When I'm a man, unless he's dead, for all my grief and pain, I'll surely punch his old bald head, and split his face in twain." The years passed by, and I became a man of famous might; I had a great and stalwart frame, my whiskers were a sight. And so I sought that teacher out; I met him at his door, and said to him, "I was, old scout, a pest in days of yore. When I recall the fiendish tricks I played, with ribald glee, I wonder that you used small sticks when you were pounding me. I was a wicked little dub, who riled you all day long; you should have used a big spiked club, to show me I was wrong." The teacher fell upon my neck, and I reclined on his, and thru his tears he said, "By heck!" and I remarked, "Gee whizz!"

MARTIN BROS.

Cor. W. North and N. Sandy, Opposite City Hall

LETTER FROM MR. WELLS

Jacksonville, Illinois,
May 25, 1916.
To the Citizens of Jacksonville.
I am a candidate for election to the Board of Education. Because of the recent illness and death of my son, I do not feel at this time that I can go out and explain to everyone personally why I am a candidate and why I am so anxious to see that the present policies continue.

Some of you people who have been advocating a new slate do not realize that this idea was first started by Andrew Russell and his friends so that he might get rid of that part of the Board which has supported our present superintendent in his fair and just policies. The cry for an entire new slate was sincere and was the boss's advocate of the general law. As you all know, two years ago, when this same proposition was up before the people, he not only voted but worked against this general law. You might as well ask Paul and Peter to go back on Christianity simply because Judas Iscariot did. We who have been supporting Mr. Collins have not been for him entirely because we liked him personally, but because we believe that he stands for the good of Jacksonville and that he has enough backbone to fight for principle; that he is not afraid to incur the hatred of the enemies of our city; that notwithstanding he knows the methods and means these enemies have always used to win in their fights, he has faith in the citizens of Jacksonville and believes that if we, the old members of the Board, put these things squarely before you, as I shall try to do in this letter, that the large majority of you are honest and that no boss or set of bosses can either by slander, falsehood, or money, deter you from doing the right thing or keep you from coming to the polls on election day and discharging your whole duty by seeing that we, who have tried to be faithful and efficient in the harness, will be re-elected as members of the Board of Education, together with other candidates who stand for the same things; and that it will be your opportunity to defeat this enemy of your city in his last stronghold, by continuing the same fair and broad school policies and the same honest and fearless support of the superintendent in his position.

I also want to say a few words concerning Mr. Rodgers' candidacy for the presidency of the new Board of Education. Mr. Rodgers was an advocate of the General Law long ago and was fighting for the same when George S. Rogerson and Andrew Russell were resorting to their usual methods to defeat the proposition in the Fourth Ward, and to retain the charter. If we had had the General Law at the time when Mr. Rodgers was made Mayor of the city, I am sure you would not see him now seeking the presidency of the Board of Education. When he was made mayor, his office included the presidency of the Board of Education, and this presidency was not taken away from him by your vote, but thru Andrew Russell, putting the bill thru the Legislature, which deprived him of the presidency of the Board without your consent or vote. I think most of you know why Mr. Russell did it; at least some of you do. He did it because he wanted to get rid of the present superintendent of schools; and now he comes back to you people after he has given you your medicine, whether you wanted it or not, and asks you to sustain him in taking away Mr. Rodgers' right to serve as the president of the Board of Education, so that Mr. Collins will be deprived of the support of this honest man. I say honest, because I have been dealing with him on the School Board for the last year and every step that he has taken has been from principle and not because of any long acquaintance or special friendship of the superintendent. I know, and I think many of you know, that Mr. Rodgers is honest; that he pays his bills; that he pays his railroad fare and carries no passes; that he employs and pays no men on election day and furnishes no money to others to do so; that he does not pay, nor does he have any committee to pay for automobiles to get the voters out; that his workers are such men and women as give their time and their intelligence to help on election day because they believe that it is for the best interests of the community to have him and others who believe in the same principles to represent them in these official positions.

People, do not be deceived. Mr. Russell is against Mr. Rodgers, and has been against him from the day he refused to go against Mr. Collins as the Superintendent of Schools. He is now openly supporting the opposing candidate for president and has had much to do with the bringing out of this large number of candidates and confusing the issue by their numbers and by their open vow that they stand and will do, if elected, what they think is for the best interests of the city. At the same time, his wonderful organization is secretly getting information to all their friends and acquaintances to vote for the last seven on the ballot.

If I am elected and conditions remain as they are now, I will favor Mr. Charles E. Collins' re-appointment as Superintendent of Schools, because after working with him for three years, I know he believes in showing no favoritism and in doing justice to all by giving equal chances to every child, whether he be rich or poor; foreign or native born; Protestant or Catholic; white, yellow or black.

Let me give you a few examples:
1. He has enforced the rules of the school to all alike.
2. He took away from the Seniors the privilege which they claimed belonged to them exclusively, namely, the right to go down town during any study period without permission from the faculty.

3. He has opposed and with the assistance of the faculty and a majority of the Board of Education has succeeded in doing away with rough neck day and color rushes, the methods whereby the strongest physically overcame the weaker, without regard to rights, but by brutal force.

4. He has enforced the laws of the North Central Association of Colleges, and the Illinois State Athletic Association, organizations to which our school belongs.

5. He has required all students taking part in the inter-scholastic athletic contests to be passing in 15 hours' work. This has this year resulted in Mack Ramey's being unable to take part, notwithstanding the fact that he and everyone else knows that, had we been able to play him, we could have been first in all the track meets, instead of second, and first in only the last.

6. He refused to sign Dick Reynolds' diploma because he violated the rules of the Association, as well as the orders of the Board, by disobeying both and taking his sweater, notwithstanding he personally thought a great deal of Dick; and notwithstanding he knew the influence in connection with his family, and the opportunity it gave Mr. Rogerson to make him unpopular with the people of this city.

7. He made his own son resign from his position as Business Manager of the Nautilus, notwithstanding he knew he was well qualified for the position and that he secured more ads than had ever been gotten for the paper before, simply because his son was neglecting to do his duty in one of his subjects and disregarding the requests of that teacher in that department.

8. He has opposed holidays and street parades, because he believed they were a detriment to the students and to the community, in that it was almost impossible to have these things and at the same time teach the pupils to observe the rights of other people. Many examples of this are recent enough for us to still have them in our memory, such as filling the streets and walks, thereby interfering with traffic; the entering of college grounds and disturbing classes and refusing to leave even when requested by the President of the College.

9. He has opposed presents to the class officers and athletic and literary coaches for the reason that he believes the public schools are maintained for the pupils of all classes; and the conditions therein should be such that it is possible for the poor as well as the rich to attend the schools. This is impossible if the children are permitted to spend money recklessly on all sorts of pretenses, so that it is impossible for the poor child to stay in school and pay his or her share of expenses.

10. He refused to sign any further contracts with the Alton High School because they insisted upon a clause in the contract barring colored men from playing on the team; and when certain members of the Alton School band objected to Earl Briscoe's playing with the band, he upheld Mr. Goodrick's rules that there was no color line and any one not wishing to play, could quit. He also settled a dispute about a colored girl in my own ward, in a manner satisfactorily to all concerned.

11. He has insisted upon the graduating class giving each denomination in the city the chance to have the Baccalaureate exercises. He required this year's class to choose outside of the Methodist and Christian denominations, taking the ground that all denominations west to the public schools and all people paid taxes either directly or indirectly; and should be represented equitably in this matter.

I am further in favor of Mr. Collins for superintendent of our schools because I am a thorough believer in the policies he advocates concerning them.

He believes that the schools should be planned for "all the children of all the people." He does not believe that the schools should be planned and run alone for the so-called privileged class who desire to prepare their children for college, but there should also be courses which will especially help those children who cannot go beyond the public schools. With this in view, he has advocated, and a majority of the Board of Education with him, placing certain subjects in the course of study. Writing and spelling are now in all the grades, including the High School. Physical training is also taught thruout the schools; the State Law requires it. From the fifth grade we have introduced manual training and sewing; from the seventh grade, cooking also. In the High School, we have enlarged the classes in typewriting, shorthand, and bookkeeping, by taking them out of the garret and placing them in good rooms, and giving them good teachers. We have again placed in the High School course commercial law, economics, sociology, and civics.

He favors this policy and these subjects in the school because they are needed in every day practical life and can and will be used to advantage by every boy and girl who takes them, whether preparing for the workshop, trades, farm or business.

He believes that there should be a salary schedule for teachers and that the salary paid each teacher should depend upon the experience, ability, educational preparation, willingness to improve in efficiency by occasionally attending summer schools; and in increasing systematically all the salaries of those meeting the conditions imposed by the Board; and not upon the mere opinion of any Board member who might wish to employ, dismiss, increase the salary or do anything else just to suit his desire.

He believes the records in the Superintendent's office should show the length of service the education, and preparation, the efficiency of the teacher, and that this efficiency should be determined by the supervisors, principals and superintendent, marking each teacher just as he would mark each pupil; and that this should be open to the teachers, so that they would be able to know their own standing at any time. He favors this because it will result in the teacher doing better work for the community and make him feel more independent, since it would be impossible for any new board to remove him without cause, and would give less opportunity to board members to weaken the teachers in their work, and to benefit themselves by removing the teachers and putting favorites in their places.

Mr. Collins further believes that the superintendent, principals and supervisors and teachers should have opinions about the courses of study and the books used and should be permitted to express those opinions to the Board of Education, and that when books are changed or new books are introduced, they should come to the Board properly recommended by the superintendent, supervisor, or by a committee of teachers appointed by the Board for that purpose. These recommendations should go to the Chairman of the Book Committee and should contain his endorsement or objection, when presented to the Board; and no member of the Board should have a right to introduce any book simply because he wants it and because he may have power thru the invisible government, to force the others to concede to his wishes.

It seems to me that you can easily see from all the above facts why some people in Jacksonville so bitterly oppose Mr. Collins. This opposition is deep-seated. It is not based upon mere like or dislike. His policies and the policies of the opposition, led by Mr. Rogerson and backed by Mr. Russell, are in direct opposition. (His is based on the modern method of ability, preparation, skill, and worth, and fitness for the place; the other's policies are based upon the old time politician ideas that "to the victor belongs the spoils." If his policies are maintained in Jacksonville, politics in the schools will be replaced by merit and the old time political ideas will soon become a thing of the past.

If you believe in what I have done in the past, have faith that I will do what I say I am going to do in the future. I want your vote, but not otherwise.

Yours truly,
Ellsworth Wells.

DR. EDMUND JAMES URGES
BROADEST KIND OF PREPAREDNESS

Preparation for General Living
Needed Even More than for War —Difference Between Defense and Armament.

Chicago, May 24.—The preparedness which the United States now needs is not only a preparedness against war but a preparedness for peace, a preparation for living as much as a preparation for fighting, President E. J. James, of the University of Illinois, told the Chicago Association of Commerce at a luncheon here this afternoon.

President James emphasized that many of the most important progressive movements in the history of mankind were the direct outgrowth of war and the development of the popular emotion which a great war, successful or unsuccessful, is likely to produce.

"The present war," said President James, "is stirring the hearts of the people of Europe to their deaths. They all believe their existence is at stake and, as a result, wonderful exhibitions of popular devotion and patriotism have been displayed in every country. The reflex of this emotion is evident even here and we should not let pass this opportunity to stir the hearts of our own people toward a larger and wider outlook, toward a broader economic and social policy."

"We must work toward a national policy which will forever banish that constant and deadening fear of lack of employment, inability to work thru accident or sickness, and poverty arising from old age and feebleness which breasts like a pall upon such a large percentage of our people. We must organize and administer a system of courts which will secure justice for the poor and defenseless, as well as for the rich and powerful."

"The so-called working classes of our country men form the greatest single asset of the nation, and every effort should be put forth in our economic policy to preserve a body of healthy, vigorous, trained and ambitious working men as the basis of our national prosperity. Under no conditions should we let the standard of life of the American laboring men sink below the present level, and every effort should be put forth to raise it still higher."

"I am a pacifist in the sense of one who would like to see all war disappear and the reign of the Prince of Peace come in; but this very Prince of Peace declared that he was come not to bring peace, but to bring a sword and his intention was to turn and overturn until justice and righteousness should prevail thruout the earth; and then peace would come. In the meantime, if we wish to be in a position to promote peace and righteousness, we must trust in God, do justice and keep our powder dry."

"The most immediate and most pressing duty of the American people if it wishes to advance civilization, is to provide for itself a more efficient system of national defense. I purposely speak of national defense instead of national armament to indicate that the object of our increase of our army and navy is not aggressive, but to enable us to maintain in a dignified, firm and effective manner our rights as a nation and the rights of our citizens wherever they may be, on land or sea, in the enjoyment of their lawful rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. The arm of the Republic should stretch over every sea and into every land to protect the American citizen in his legitimate activities, and our army and navy should be strengthened to enable our government to accomplish this end."

THE MOOSE CARNIVAL.

The Evans shows which furnish the attraction for the carnival given under the auspices of the local Order of Moose drew another large crowd at the Cannon lot last night. The various free attractions were appreciated and all the others were well patronized. Spidora opened for the first time. This is a scientifically constructed modern delusion and is exceedingly interesting. The Silo-drome is another popular attraction and the daring of the riders was the wonder of all. To all appearances the riders mount a perpendicular wall. Tonight newsboys and paper carriers will be admitted to all attractions as the special guests of Manager Evans.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Mexican War Times

By Ensley Moore.

Member Illinois State Historical Society.

The Morgan Journal of July 24, 1847, was unusually interesting, looking backward.

It had an article on the first page regarding the 1st and 2nd Illinois regiments, which says:

"With pleasure we give a place to the following order of Gen. Wool, upon taking leave of the 1st and 2nd regiments of Illinois Volunteers.

Order No. 302.

Headquarters, Buena Vista, May 28, 1847.—The term of service for which the 1st and 2nd Illinois Regiments have engaged to serve the United States has nearly expired and they are about to return to their homes. The general commanding takes this occasion to express his deep regret at the departure of those who have been so long under his command, and who have served, and served so well, their country. Few can boast of longer marches, greater hardships, and more privations, and none of greater gallantry in the field at Buena Vista.

It was there that the general witnessed with infinite satisfaction their valor, which gave additional lustre to our arms and increased glory to our country. To their steadiness and firmness, in connection with the 2nd Kentucky Foot, in resisting the Mexicans at a critical moment, and when there were five to one against them—and, as Gen. Santa Anna said, "When blood flowed in torrents and the field of battle was strewn with the dead,"—we may justly ascribe a large share of the glorious victory achieved over more than 20,000 men.

A great victory, it is true; but attained at too great a sacrifice. Hardin, Zabriskie, Woodward, McKee, Yell and Clay, and many others, fell leading their men to the charge. Their names and gallant deeds will ever be remembered by a grateful people.

In taking leave of these regiments the general cannot omit to express his admiration of the conduct and gallant bearing of all, and especially of Col. Bissell and Weatherford, and their officers, who have on all occasions done honor to themselves, and heroically sustained the cause of their country in the battle of Buena Vista.

The best wishes will attend them to their homes, where they will be received with joy and gladness, as the pride of their families and their State.

By command of Brig. Gen. Wool, Jas. McDowell, A. A. G.

Gen. Wool became a major-general, and served, afterwards, in the Civil War, but was too old for that era. Col. Weatherford was from this county, having succeeded Col. Hardin as commander of the 1st Illinois. Col. Bissell was from Belleville, and commanded the 2nd Illinois, afterward becoming Governor of Illinois, in which office he died in 1860.

"Barbecue at Franklin."

This was announced on the editorial page as follows: "We have been authorized to give notice that on Friday, the 30th inst., a Barbecue will be given at Franklin, in this county, to the brave Volunteers just returned from Mexico. Orators of the day: Richard Yates and Murray McConnell, Esqs. Capt. Wyatt's company will parade on the occasion and show off the "Rough and Ready" drill. Everybody is invited to attend.

The Executive Committee appointed by the citizens of Franklin, consists of the following gentlemen: E. S. Heinrichsen, P. Holdridge, John Wyatt and Harvey Holt. Committee of Arrangements: John Sappington, Henry Sanderson, Wm. Rodgers, R. Van Winkle, Jos. Scott, Daniel Huey, J. C. Moore, P. Bowler, P. Cunningham, J. Graves and Jas. Langley.

Upon our own responsibility, we take the liberty to state, that a great time may be expected at Franklin on the 30th. The Apple Creek people never do things by halves. A warmer hearted, or more patriotic or more hospitable people cannot be found in any land which the sun shines upon."

It would be a good guess that "Richard Yates, Esq.," as aforesaid, wrote that notice.

Telegraph.

An editorial note says: "The Telegraph.—Fifteen hundred miles of electric telegraph are now finished and in operation in the United States, and five thousand miles more are contracted for, to be finished during the year."

Now, 1916, there are 238,033 miles of wire in continental United States, with 4,615 miles in the Philippines and 500 in Porto Rico; according to the Chicago News Almanac, in one place. In another the W. U. Telegraph Co. alone is credited with 1,562,170 miles of wires, and 25,060 offices in 1914.

Chicago Convention.

Chicago had begun the Convention habit in 1847, for the Journal remarked: "As previously notified, the great Western River and Harbor Convention, called to take in consideration the existing deplorable state of river and lake navigation in the West, assembled in Chicago on the 5th inst. It is said to have been one of the largest and most imposing concourses of the governing people ever assembled for conventional purposes in the West." Edward Bates, of Mo., Attorney General in Lincoln's first cabinet, was president, with vice-presidents from Conn., Pa., Florida, R. I., Wis., Ind., Mo., Mich., Iowa, N. Y., Ill., N. J., Me., Ohio and Mass., S. Colfax, Ind., was the first secretary among eight.

Capt. Dunlap's Company.

By the steamer J. L. Day, at New Orleans, accounts from Matamoros to 7th ult., had been received. The "Pleasure" gave various items of news, among them being this:

"Capt. Dunlap's company of mounted men from Illinois have arrived at Matamoros, the men in fine health, and the horses in tolerable condition."

This company was commanded by Capt. Adam S. Dunlap—whosever he was.

Soldier Died.

In the death notices of the Journal was the following:

"At the residence of E. L. Pelham, Esq., in Jersey county, Ill., on the 9th inst., Andrew J. Fanning, of Morgan county, aged about 19.

The deceased had performed twelve months service in Capt. Wyatt's company, 1st Regiment, Illinois Volunteers, participated in the engagements at Buena Vista; bore a part in the long marches for which the Illinoisans were noted, and had arrived within a few miles of home when he died. He has left a widowed mother, and several brothers and sisters, most of whom are younger than himself, to mourn his loss."

The Capt. Wyatt referred to here, and above, was Wm. J. Wyatt, afterwards Lieut. Colonel of the 101st Regiment of Illinois Volunteers, in the Civil War.

Hardin Estate.

David A. Smith, as executor, gives notice regarding the settlement of the estate of Col. John J. Hardin.

Cholera.

"The Commercial Times—probably of Cincinnati—notifies upon good authority, a probable case of Asiatic cholera in that city, and suggests the propriety of the board of health making inquiry in regard to the matter, and of the council taking some action in relation thereto, if sanitary measures showed that necessary."

Election.

The Regular Whig ticket, for the election on the first Monday in August in Morgan county, was:

For Probate Justice—Matthew Stacey.

For Recorder—J. M. Lucas.

For County Commissioner—Henry Sanderson.

For County Surveyor—Geo. M. Richards.

For School Commissioner—H. B. McClure.

For Assessor and Treasurer—Peter Hedenberg.

Then followed a string of eighteen independent candidates for officers from constable to recorder.

Various Items.

"M. McConnel" (M. McConnell) is referred to in the tax list.

Daniel Huey offers his farm, 13 miles southeast, for sale. "The site is high and commands a beautiful view of the surrounding prairies. It cannot be surpassed for health, as only one case of chill and fever has occurred in six years."

RELIEVED OF MONEY

Miles Kennel, a farm hand living not far from Jacksonville went to Springfield recently to attend a circus. According to the story he told the Springfield police he purchased a new suit of clothes and was thoroughly prepared for a good time. He went to a rooming house in Springfield for Monday night and when he awakened Tuesday found that he had been robbed of all his cash, and so the vision of his good time disappeared.

FISHED AT CLEAR LAKE

Robert Allan and sons, Robert and Clifford and William McCullough of Riggston spent Wednesday fishing at Clear Lake near Winchester. They had a good catch of catfish.

OLDEST OF COLLEGE SPORTS.

Intercollegiate rowing antedates all sports in which our American universities engage. Students of Yale and Harvard first met in competition on Center Harbor, Lake Winnepesaukee, nearly sixty-four years ago—on August 3, 1862, to be precise. In the sixties and seventies aquatics reigned supreme without a rival. In neither popularity nor scope were baseball, football, nor any other sport to be compared with it. Rowing is still the most important major sport in seats of learning where adequate facilities exist, important not alone in the part it is playing in the general campaign of eliminating from the undergraduate body the fashion of taking athletics by proxy.

Originally a sport in which the few came to row and the many to cheer, rowing today calls to the inept and to the mediocre as well as to the man qualified to sit in a university shell. As a muscle builder, no sport equals the game of sweep and shell, and it holds poetry and pleasure, as well as physical benefit, for its devotees. At Harvard, Cornell, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Wisconsin, Leland Stanford, California, and Washington, definite advances in aquatics have been marked each year, and at all the interests of the non-varsity oarsmen have been observed in varying degrees as the support of generous alumni has permitted.

Following the lead of such schools as Saint Paul's, Broton, Exeter and Middlesex, preparatory institutions (around the country have done much to interest their students in rowing for their own sake, with the result that each year seats of higher learning receive large groups of boys who care for the sport not so much for the opportunity it may offer to beat some one else as for the physical improvement and mental pleasure they derive therefrom.—Scribners.

Warm Weather Battery Hints

With the pleasant days of summer, comes a tendency for every motor car owner to overlook the necessary care of certain parts of his car which can't be seen.

One of these parts is the storage battery, and because of the important part it plays in starting, lighting and ignition, too much emphasis cannot be laid upon its care.

On this account, the Willard Storage Battery Company are instructing all of their 750 service stations to advise car owners throughout the country on the essential points of warm weather attention to batteries, probably the most important of these is water. During the summer, a storage battery should receive pure distilled water at intervals of a week or ten days. This is necessary because of the evaporation of the solution which gives the battery its life. If this solution is allowed to leave a portion of the battery plates exposed to the air, these plates will deteriorate and the life of the battery will be greatly shortened.

Another point to consider is the hydrometer test to determine specific gravity of the solution. This test should always average 1.280 and in cases where the car owner does not want to make the test himself, he can have it made free of charge at any Willard Service Station. If the battery is allowed to go below the gravity mentioned, it will gradually run down and refuse to turn over a starting motor or operate the electric lights.

By watching these two most important things, any car owner may expect the very best service from his storage batteries.

We have as complete a workshop and a force of as good mechanics as will be found in this section of the state. No job too large or too small but what it can be handled and done in the right way.

A complete vulcanizing plant, brazing and welding a specialty. Lamp bulbs for any car, horns, hydrometers and a complete line of accessories.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR

Gen. O. O. Howard viewing Yellowstone geysers while on the trail of an Indian band, August 30, 1877.

THE interest of Yellowstone National Park lies not alone in its spectacular geologic wonders nor in the great numbers of tame wild animals, but also in its record as the scene of many stirring incidents of frontier days.

Scattered through the Park are the battlefields on which Chief Joseph and his band of hostile Nez Perce Indians stood at bay and fought the forces of General O. O. Howard, who pursued him 1500 weary miles from Central Oregon, through Yellowstone and north nearly to the Canadian line, where General Nelson A. Miles stopped the Indians and captured them.

This last stand of the red man against encroaching civilization has left an indelible trace upon our greatest national park. Many of the roads now used were marked first by the ponies of Joseph and widened for the wagons of the white troops—a day's march behind.

Nez Perce Creek is the place where a party of tourists were surprised and scattered by some of the more lawless of Joseph's followers. But for 39 years Yellowstone has been as safe as a village green. Now more people than ever are going there because seeing this wonderland is part of the education of the "complete American." About two-thirds of all who visit the Park enter through the western gateway (Yellowstone Station), the Union Pacific entrance, because Colorado and Salt Lake City may be seen on the way without added expense, and also because this makes a convenient side trip on the way to California or the North Pacific Coast.

Send for free booklets about Yellowstone.

LETTER FROM MR. COLLINS

To the Citizens of Jacksonville:

In view of the fact that a report is current naming me as the issue in the coming school election, I wish to state that I have not announced myself as a candidate for re-election and will not do so until the result of Saturday's election is known.

Unless the results of this election show that the hateful influence of the invisible would-be dictator of Jacksonville's school system, Andrew Russell, as exercised through George S. Rogerson, is to be minimized, I would not feel justified in continuing the struggle to maintain the integrity of the schools.

I have tried to uphold the standard of equality of rights for all and special privileges for none; I have had the loyal support of most of my colleagues; and all of the board of directors, except George S. Rogerson, have stood steadfastly for discipline and the enforcement of all rules and have shown me that they are still "A God in Israel" and His servants are not all slain.

The board members who have upheld my hands, have saved the schools from the disintegration and insubordination which have been largely engendered, abetted and fostered by the opposing forces in the Board, backed by Andrew Russell; George S. Rogerson almost always leading in any plan to cause dissatisfaction and strife between Superintendent and students. This strife is the most fatal thing that can enter into the work of any school; and a Board member who will not only countenance, but abet it, is certainly not a fit man to serve the people in any capacity.

The question of my position should not enter this election at all, because the people are not electing a superintendent, but a Board. The schools would not be whether I or another should be chosen for next year, but the Board members who elect now will be your representatives, some of them, for two or three years. What the people of this city need to vote for, is clean men and women who will do their own thinking as occasions arise; who will stand together as a Board; who will stand behind the Superintendent, whoever he may be. Co-operation is the crying need of the whole city of Jacksonville; and the school system seems to need it more than any other branch of the city's government.

The harmful things are done quietly and generally thru others, and do not easily become known to the general public. Many people—many parents—have not even asked for the facts concerning candidates. It is the duty of every voter to investigate the character and backing of every man or woman who would serve on the board, before casting his or her vote.

Who is this "committee" that has requested certain parties to run against their wishes? Do you know the other people they want you to support for members of the Board? Who associates with them? Who are their backers? Who are these two men that are and have been so busily engaged for the last two days, visiting every part of the city? What is their business? What questions are they asking those whom they go to see? Are they empty handed, or do they go about with plenty of this world's goods? Are all the people who help on election day to get out the voters, to use them for that day's services, or do some of them work free and only for what they think to be for the good of the community? Do you know, if there

INVESTMENT STOCKS AS WELL AS SPECIALTIES ADVANCE

Market Goes Thru Process of Healthy Reaction in the Vernacular of the Speculative Element.

New York, May 24.—In the vernacular of the speculative element today's market went thru the process of healthy reaction, investment stocks as well as specialties developing marked advance on fairly large sales.

Washington's note to the British government about mail detentions formed the basis of bearish sentiment but in all likelihood today's reversal resulted chiefly from the belief that the upswing had proceeded almost too rapidly for safety. Reading, which led the recent advance on its series of new high records was no less conspicuous on the decline. Other active rails were lower by 1 to over 2 points at irregular intervals.

The movement of specialties was confusing, suggesting a conflict between the short and long accounts but higher prices prevailed after midday.

Such war and semi-war description as the locomotives, Crucible Steel, General Electric, Westinghouse and United States Industrial Alcohol were galvanized into renewed activity had strength on circumstantial reports of additional foreign contracts. United States steel was firm most of the session but fell back with the entire list in the final hour. Total sales amounted to 790,000 shares. Readings contribution being almost one quarter of the whole.

Foreign exchange, notably sterling, continued heavy despite additional receipts of gold from Canada.

Reasons for the recent activity in Wabash issues at material gains were found in the April statement of the road, showing an increase of $580,000 over the same month last year.

Bonds were irregular on an expansion of operations. Total sales par value aggregated $4,680,000.

WHEAT CONTINUES TO HOLD
SOMETHING OF ADVANCE

Prices Close Unsettled 1/2 to 3/4 of a Cent Net Higher—Corn Rises as Result of Unfavorable Weather.

Chicago, May 24.—Notwithstanding that peace rumors led to a bearish reaction in the last hour, the wheat market today continued to hold something of a sharp advance which had resulted chiefly from increased reports of crop damage in Oklahoma and Southern Kansas. Prices closed unsettled, 1/2 to 3/4c net higher with July at $1.09 1/2c and September at $1.10c. Corn finished 1/4c to 1/2c up, oats unchanged to 1/2c higher, and provisions varying from the same as yesterday's close to 1 1/2c advance.

Until speculators began to appreciate the possible significance which the reported mission of Prince Von Buelow to the United States might have as a definite move for an early peace, the wheat market was uniformly on the upgrade. Excessive heat and absence of rain in Oklahoma and neighboring parts of Kansas it was said, had caused decided enlargement of burnt areas in the fields and had led to predictions of an abnormally shrunken yield. Bullish sentiment was further emphasized by Indiana reports of Hessian fly damage, and by advices telling of reduced acreage in the northwest on both sides of the Canadian boundary. Two cents a bushel was added to values in some cases before the persistent advance was checked. Skepticism regarding the authenticity of the news regarding Von Buelow prevented the bears from obtaining a more complete control of the wheat market during the late trading.

The fact that the report was without any confirmation from German sources did much to impair the effect of prices. Sufficient importance was attached to the peace outlook however, to induce lively selling on the part of some leading houses that before hand were conspicuous on the buying side.

Corn rose with wheat and as a result of unfavorable weather, especially in Illinois and Iowa. Besides, receipts were notably small. Damage reports from Oklahoma tended to lift the oats market. Advices that were favorable as the big central states.

Scarcity of Argentine beef was said to be a factor in bringing about higher prices of provisions. The chief immediate influence however was an advance in the value of hogs.

HE LOVES ME: HE LOVES ME NOT

Cupid Story of Daisies' Petals Has Changed in Jacksonville to "Frisbie is Eligible and Frisbie is Not."

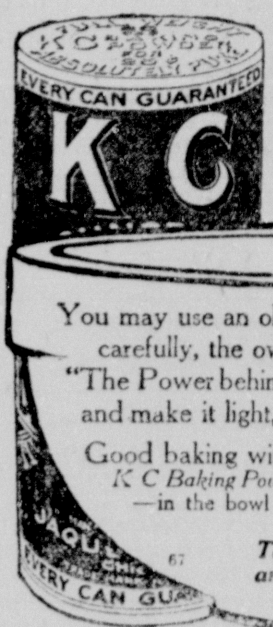

The following outburst from the Bloomington Pantograph evidences that paper's grasp of the local I. C. situation.
According to the sentimentally inclined, there used to be, and probably still is extant somewhere, the legend of how the daisy's petals could tell the state of mind of the loved one; by gently pulling the petals to the tune of "He loves me—He loves me not." Now that has all been changed for a new and modern tune in Jacksonville, the home not only of those hopelessly incapacitated mentally, but the home of Illinois College, the well known seat of learning in that section of the state—and the new words to the time-worn refrain are as follows: "Frisbie is now eligible to college sports—Frisbie is not eligible to represent his school any more this year," and this little ditty has been given the "once over" many, many times over, since the first sounding of the mournful refrain in southeastern Illinois somewhere in state athletic history as far back as the middle of the football season last fall.

At the present the sounding of the eternal song runs that "Frisbie can now play." After about the "student" announcement that the luckless star athlete of Illinois College would represent his school no more this year on the athletic field, the word now comes that the faculty has again reinstated "Julian" to the immense gratification of his fellow students. The dons of learning at that institution decided that Frisbie's recent showing in his studies entitled him to reinstatement. Frisbie is captain of next year's football team, a fine basketball player, a hurdler and an all around athlete. "He loves me still and all is well on the Rappahannock, down in Illinois College."

THE OASIS OF SIVA.

The oasis of Siva where the Serpent has appeared as a distant menace to the Nile, is better known as the oasis of Jupiter Ammon, one of the most famous oracles of antiquity. The visit of Alexander the Great to this temple was among the most romantic incidents of his career. He came to ask whether he was only the son of the mortal Philip, or the son of the great god himself. Apparently Alexander received full assurance from the oracle of his divine origin, with the promise of unbroken victory until he should be taken away to join the gods. And many signs showed his superhuman status. Rain fell in the desert just when his soldiers thirst required it; and, when his guides lost their way two speaking serpents or ravens appeared to direct them.—London Chronicle.

The Power
the dough

You may use an old favorite recipe and the best of materials and make it carefully, the oven may be just right, yet you will have a failure if "The Power behind the Dough" is not the right one to leaven it properly and make it light, digestible, wholesome.

Good baking without good baking powder is out of the question. K. C. Baking Powder has wonderful leavening power, and the double action—in the bowl and in the oven—makes good results doubly certain.

Take no chances of failure—use K. C. and have "good luck" every time. At all Grocers.

COUNTY JUDGES WILL HOLD
NEXT MEETING IN SPRINGFIELD

Convention Here Wednesday Best
Held for Several Years—New Officers Chosen.

The convention of county judges of the state held in Jacksonville Wednesday was said to be one of the most interesting of recent years. There were about thirty-five judges present, together with a number of attorneys from Jacksonville and nearby cities. The morning session began about 9 o'clock, when the address of welcome was made by L. O. Vaught, president of the Morgan County Bar association, and the response was made by Harry W. Pogue of Jerseyville. At the business session it was decided that a meeting will be held in Springfield in January and the officers were chosen as follows:

The county judges chose Springfield for their next place of meeting and elected the following officers:

President—J. M. Rahn, Pekin.
Vice president—Harry W. Pogue, Jerseyville; S. L. Rathje, Wheaton; W. S. Wilhite, Mt. Carmel; E. T. Lardin, LaSalle.

Secretary—B. R. Thompson, Pontiac.
Treasurer—Lyman C. McCarl, of Quincy.

Executive committee—Henry Horner, Chicago; J. B. Fitch, Joliet; William E. Thompson, Jacksonville; Chester Barnett, Peoria; W. G. Wilson, Salem.

In addition to the addresses on the program as arranged, in the afternoon, Dr. Edward Bowe, member of the state centennial commission was present and told something of the commission's plans for the coming celebration. Dr. Bowe was heard with special interest. Following adjournment visiting judges were taken in automobiles for a two hour tour of the city. During the sessions Judge B. R. Thompson of Pontiac served as secretary in the absence of Judge F. J. Campbell of Galena.

Before adjournment the judges passed a vote of thanks to the members of the local bar for courtesies extended and to the people of Jacksonville for their hospitality. The session was attended by many more than were present a year ago and it is planned to have the program of 1917 extend thru two days with the thought that the interest will be greater. Judge W. E. Thomson invited the convention to Jacksonville this year and was naturally gratified over the success of the meeting.

Roster of Judges.

The members of the state association enrolled were: Lyman McCarl, Quincy; W. Y. Baker, Mt. Sterling; Charles A. E. Martin, Virginia; Charles A. Prater, Taylorville; Thomas F. Scully, Chicago; Henry Horner, Chicago; S. L. Rathje, Wheaton; Barney Overbeck, Effingham; Hobart S. Boyd, Lewistown; Thomas Henshaw, Carrollton; George Bedford, Morris; E. W. Dunham, Carthage; Harry W. Pogue, Jerseyville; Jay H. Merrill, Kankakee; Perry L. Persons, Waukegan; Albert T. Lardin, Ottawa; B. R. Thompson, Pontiac; W. G. Wilson, Salem; Charles I. Innes, Macomb; James C. Riley, Bloomington; William E. Thomson, Jacksonville; Chester Barnett, Peoria; Walter A. Finch, Peoria; Paul F. Grote, Pittsfield; Benjamin Bell, Rock Island; F. C. Funk, Winchester; Frank Perrin, Belleville; J. M. Rahn, Pekin; W. S. Wilhite, Mt. Carmel; William P. Green, Nashville; John B. Fitch, Joliet; Arthur C. Fort, Eureka; Carl E. Epler, Quincy.

The morning session was called to order by President Perry L. Persons of Waukegan, who requested Judge Thompson of Pontiac to act as secretary in the absence of Judge Campbell of Galena. The chair spoke in the highest terms of the hospitality shown visitors and said all who failed to see the play given on Illinois college campus missed a great treat. He complimented Judge Thomson of Jacksonville for the fine preparations made for the meeting and then called on L. O. Vaught, President of the Morgan county bar to make the address of welcome.

Mr. Vaught said: "As president of the Morgan county bar I greet you most cordially and bid you welcome in our beautiful city. The Morgan county bar has an association which may be regarded as social but which has a grand result. In olden times a good part of the time at trials was occupied by counsel in abusing each other and often attorneys were at swords' points. One evening many years ago, some of the younger members of the bar had a possum supper and such a good time that idea grew until now about every lawyer in the county belongs. We have a supper once a year, meet at the call of the president and so a feeling of kindness has been generated. "Our city has had great men in its bar, among them Wm. Brown, Judge Cyrus Epler, Wm. P. Callon, O. A. DeLew, I. L. Morrison, H. G. Whitlock, George W. Smith."

Judge Pogue of Jerseyville, made an appropriate response and then the convention proceeded with the regular order of business.

PARTITION SUIT FILED FOR CIRCUIT COURT HEARING

Heirs Seek to Settle Russell Estate—Several Trials Held Wednesday.

In the circuit court F. L. Gregory as attorney for Clara M. Russell has filed a partition suit directed against Robert Russell, Anna L. Lotterholm, Eleanor Russell, Martha Russell, Elizabeth Russell, George S. Russell and A. O. Braner. The defendants except the last named are children of the late Mrs. Louise Russell and by her death they inherited the residence property on Caldwell street known as lot 13 Elm Grove addition, and a tract of land two miles northwest of Jacksonville, being part of the east half of the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 13.

In the case of Joseph Megginson, who was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery, the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant not guilty. Mr. Megginson was represented by Bellatti & Moriarty.

Adolph Donnelly, who was charged with forgery, appeared before the court and entered a plea of guilty. Judge Burton sentenced him to Chester penitentiary, where he will remain until discharged or paroled in accordance with law.

The case against Arthur Anders, Edgar Hopper and Lloyd Hare, charged with burglary and larceny, was called and capias was ordered to issue for Anders. Judge Burton assessed a fine of $10 and costs and a jail sentence of one day against Hopper, and $100 and costs and one day in jail against Lloyd Hare. The fines are not to be collected unless there are further offences, as Judge Burton believed that leaving the case in this form would place restraint upon the boys. He did this especially in the Hopper case because the young man is industrious and a hard worker and only gets in trouble when he has taken on too much liquor.

The jury which heard the case of John Crawley, charged with burglary and larceny, returned a verdict finding him guilty after deliberating but sixteen minutes. The whole trial occupied but a short time as it began at 3 o'clock and the verdict was returned before 5. The jurors were William Stringer, O. N. Petesh, Phil Hinner, Fred Drake, G. W. Patterson, Roy Eyre, P. J. Wolfe, C. A. Beavers, J. Carl Joaquin, Matt Harmon, Henry Northrup and G. W. Parks.

MAY MAKE LARGE POSTAL SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Postmaster Ralph I. Dunlap has received notification that the postal savings deposit laws have been changed so that larger deposits may be received. Formerly the maximum amount that could be received was $500. Now depositors may have an account of $1,000. This will be interesting news to many depositors who already have reached the maximum under the old law. Another amendment to the law is that eliminating the maximum amount a depositor can deposit in one month. This amount formerly was $100. The amendment abolishes this restriction. Since the creation of the Postal Savings system there are more than half a million depositors with total deposits of more than eighty millions of dollars. It is the opinion of the authorities that the system has not met the full demands of the public and it is hoped that the amendments to the law will be a step toward making the postal savings system what it is intended to be.

GROUP EIGHT BANKERS HELD BIG MEETING AT BARRY

Preparedness Expounded by John Temple Graves. Became Absorbing Theme.—Demonstration for Andrew Russell.

Barry is not so centrally located as some other cities included in the territory where members of group eight of the Illinois Bankers association reside, but that fact did not interfere with the attendance at the annual meeting Wednesday. In fact, more than one hundred bankers were present and the attendance record was fully sustained. The principal address was given by John Temple Graves, with "National Preparedness" as his theme. Mr. Graves, with a well merited reputation as a great orator, thoroughly interested his auditors. This address was one of a series, as he is to appear at all of the group meetings.

State Treasurer Andrew Russell reached the convention from Springfield just before noon and an enthusiastic demonstration was given in his honor. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" has been paraphrased to include Mr. Russell's name and George Beekman led the company in the enthusiastic singing. Mr. Russell received a great many personal assurances of support in event of his active candidacy for the governorship. As preparedness was the theme of Mr. Graves' address, so it came to be the principal subject of all the discussion and as a result the bankers were formed into six companies and Mr. Weber of Barry was elected colonel. While the bankers are of the opinion that war is but a remote possibility, they felt that the prophesy of Mr. Graves that war is almost a certainty for this country was sincerely spoken.

There was no lacking of enthusiasm when the companies were organized and Colonel Weber will give the bankers a chance to evidence continuation of this enthusiasm by enlisting for a month's military training at a summer camp. Altogether the session was one of the most interesting that the group has ever held and resulted in an increase of good fellowship—the very purpose for which the various bankers' groups have been organized. In this district it is worthy of note that every banker belongs. Jacksonville people present yesterday were Andrew Russell, E. E. Crabtree, F. J. Heintz, C. A. Johnson, H. K. Cheno-weth, Homer Potter, C. H. Weber and George Beekman. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Chairman—E. H. Fleming, Bow-en.
Vice chairman—Frank D. Thomas, Camp Point.
Secretary-treasurer—C. A. Johnson, Jacksonville.
State vice president—M. P. Berry, Carthage.
Member state executive council—F. T. Jergens, Petersburg.
